The Dodge County Sheriff's Office has just been made aware that the placement of Robert Larson and Jonathan Miller at W462 Highway 67 in the Town of Lomira will no longer be occurring. Sheriff Schmidt received an email today from the Department of Health Services indicating that the sale of the residence had fallen through, meaning that both subjects will remain housed at Sandridge Secure Detention Facility in Mauston pending the search for a new location.

The Dodge County Sheriff's Office thanks the residents of the Town of Lomira for their patience and restraint during this process.

Additional information can be obtained by contacting Sheriff Dale J Schmidt.
